

Small choices have huge impacts on the One Health Mission. When working with animals, it is vital to use a glove that can be washed and disinfected in order to decrease the risk of infectious disease transmission.

– Laura Catena DVM

